

Mirror, Mirror

Burning Witches

Untired desire
Walks fiercely through the fire
A killer, a thriller
Unstoppable freak

Illusion, confusion
Untainted execution
A mountain of steel
Untouchable beast

Are you the hunter or are you a prey
Butchered beneath your masquerade

Take a look, look into the mirror
Mirror, mirror, tell me what you see
Stop and look, look into the mirror
Mirror, mirror, do you dare to just be?

Oh mirror on the wall
Who is the strongest of all
Who's true? Who will fall?
On this masked ball

Are you the hunter or are you a prey
Butchered beneath your masquerade

Take a look, look into the mirror
Mirror, mirror, tell me what you see
Stop and look, look into the mirror
Mirror, mirror, do you dare to just be?

Just be

When will you see what is behind it all
One will stay strong and one will fall

Take a look, look into the mirror
Mirror, mirror, tell me what you see
Stop and look, look into the mirror
Mirror, mirror, do you dare to just be?

Look look look...
