

Open Your Mind

Burning Witches

There's something evil in the fog
Downfall has just begun
It's neither Satan nor a god
So were do you belong?
There is no redemption in hate
No matter how hard you try
It has always been too late
Deny, deny, deny

Open your mind
Open your soul
Open your mouth against human incompetence
Don't spread the lies and drown in your own hate

So don't close your eyes
Open your heart
And try to remember how to cry

There's something evil in the fog
A liar if ever I saw one
You don't want to sacrifice your child
But you let them play with your gun

Open your mind
Open your soul
Open your mouth against human incompetence
Don't spread the lies and drown in your own hate

So don't close your eyes
Open your heart
And try to remember how to cry

Open your mind, open your mind
Open your mind, open your mind

Sometimes it's easier to follow a liar
Than to find a way in the truth
(In the truth)
(In the truth)
(In the truth)

Open your mind
Open your soul
Open your mouth against human incompetence
Don't spread the lies and drown in your own hate

So don't close your eyes
Open your heart
And try to remember how to cry

Open your mind
Open your soul
Don't spread the lies and drown in your own hate

Open your mind
Open your mind
Open your mind
