

The Spell Of The Skull

Burning Witches

Hollow eyes won't let me go
The air is heavy from a force beyond
Where a story ends others begin
Down where the dreamer's laid to rest

The spell of the skull
It's staring back at me
The spell of the skull
It's holding you and me
The spell of the skull
It's staring back at me
The spell of the skull
Bewitching you and me

Rites and mysteries from ancient times
Spirits trancing to the song of chimes
Remember the past is what they sing
Down at the dreamer's treasure chest

The spell of the skull
It's staring back at me
The spell of the skull
It's holding you and me
The spell of the skull
It's staring back at me
The spell of the skull
Bewitching you and me

Darkness in the valley of the damned
A new day is dawning, yeah
Dancing for a journey's end
Some are cursed and some are blessed
Spellbound are souls that rise and fall

The spell of the skull
It's staring back at me
The spell of the skull
Bewitching you and me, yeah!

The spell of the skull
Whoa oh oh oh
The spell of the skull
Whoa oh oh oh
The spell of the skull
Whoa oh oh oh
The spell of the skull
Whoa oh oh oh
