

Tomorrow

Burning Witches

I often wonder what you are doing out
Out of the walls that we built all around

You are not a softly whispered amen
Be sure to show the world some mayhem

Cause tomorrow is a brand-new day
And tomorrow you'll be on your way
Don't give a damn about what other people say
Because tomorrow is a brand-new day

Going with the flow and living out loud
You told me fighting with the devil on holy ground

You are not a softly whispered amen
Be sure to show the world some mayhem

Cause tomorrow is a brand-new day
And tomorrow you'll be on your way
Don't give a damn about what other people say
Because tomorrow is a brand-new day

Cause tomorrow is a brand-new day
And tomorrow you'll be on your way
Don't give a damn about what other people say
Because tomorrow is a brand-new day

A brand-new day
Oh, a brand-new day
Oh, a brand-new day
