

World On Fire

Burning Witches

She's living for passion
For passion and pain
Her victims are forced to go insane

A vortex of souls
Their bodies are burning up in chains

Burning bare skin, cutting off flesh and sin
Turning beauties into rotting zombie cuties

Set your world on fire
Let the horror strike
Set your world on fire
Flesh burned on a pike

She's living for evil
For pure ecstasy
For expressing creativity

Her tormented prisoners
Taste her serpents kiss
Deep down in the dungeons of the abyss

Burning bare skin, cutting off flesh and sin
Turning beauties into rotting zombie cuties

Just one mistake and you will surely break
There's no chance for escape from this hell you are in

Set your world on fire
Let the horror strike
Set your world on fire
Flesh burned on a pike

Set your world on fire
Let the horror strike
Set your world on fire
Flesh burned on a pike
