

Begin Again

Bury Tomorrow

Erase me, completely
Start over, set finally free
Destroy me, completely
Start over
Eternally

Taking control of falling apart
Choosing to crawl when I can no longer walk
Trapped in these four walls with no fear of the dark

Remember when I stole your future?
I severed the divine, forced forward
As I felt the wind slow, I let the guilt grow
We watched the sky fall apart
Light to dark
The start of the decline
Self tortured
A short departure; deceivers design

Hide what lies inside
Sick of the lies you're telling me
Ever paralyzed
Push the reset and we'll begin again
I've been so disconnected, feeling the distance never free
A time despised
Push the reset, we'll begin again

Erase me, completely
Start over
Eternally

We are left wondering why we always fall
The days are turning to years becoming nothing at all
Repeat, recede into this constant sleep
The mind in stasis, a coma deep

Hide what lies inside
Sick of the lies you're telling me
Ever paralyzed
Push the reset and we'll begin again
I've been so disconnected, feeling the distance never free
A time despised
Push the reset, we'll begin again

Taking control of falling apart
Choosing to crawl when I can no longer walk
Trapped in these four walls with no fear of the dark

Erase me, completely
Start over
Push the reset, we'll begin again
Push the reset, we'll begin again
