

Peacekeeper

Bury Tomorrow

Rest in peace, my friend
Know that this is not the end
As we say goodbye to you
I hope to god you knew
This pain won't mend

Follow my voice, into the dark
I promise, I hear, the voice I once knew
Follow my voice, into the dark
I promise, I hear, the voice I once knew

Shadow, I see you
You've got a face I recognize
Now I'm questioning myself, as to whether
All I've seen here is real, or is it a lie?
I'm fine, I swear I'm fine
I'll walk the line, now that I've seen you rise

Silence, this is all we'll know
I've seen a version of how it has to go
Silence, you're not alone
Into the light unknown

Rest in peace, my friend
Know that this is not the end
As we say goodbye to you
I hope to god you knew
This pain won't mend

Silent, you are not alone
Be strong, into the light unknown
Silent, you are not alone
Be strong, into the light unknown

Silence, this is all we'll know
I've seen a version of how it has to go
Silence, you're not alone
Into the light unknown

You've lost the will, it's over now
How can we live through this hell?
You've lost the will, it's over now
How can we live through this hell?

So let your spirit rise
Surrounded in light
And even though your body will die
In our minds you're always alive

So let your spirit rise
Surrounded in light
And even though your body will die
In our minds you're always alive

So let your spirit rise
Surrounded in light
And even though your body will die

In our minds you're always alive
