

A Forgotten Realm

Burzum

Dreams have swept me away
Into a long forgotten realm
Down into the depths of the Earth
Into a hidden cavern

Into the world below
I walk into the forgotten past
"Do not turn around!"
"Never look back!"

Fathers and mothers from ancient times
Ghosts from a forgotten world
With wonder they look upon me
"What took you so long?"

I wander not in darkness
I am not lost, nor bewildered
The path is not hidden
The tracks are not old

I was here a moment ago
I am home
I am home
I am home
