

Memoirs Intro

Busdriver

All the beauty in the world can't be explained within these words
All the pain and anguish can't be contained in a song (Afterlife)
The unlimited amount of talent and ability cannot be captured in a verse
So what we are to do is give you a mere hint, a mere glimpse in to the ongoing flow of information (Afterlife)
And information that retains to personal experiences, cultural programs applied to us and whatnot
All explained in my memoirs of the elephantman
Sumeria is 15 months to this day
