

Nothing but a Car Chase

Bush

There's blood on the walls, this town
Some screams have no sound
Been around the world for love
You been around the world for love
There's violence in the silence
The flowers in your hair

Hang on to yourself, babe
Hang on to yourself, babe
Oh

It's all so temporary
Changes like the rivers running through the mountains
Your heart was a sanctuary
Now it's just a mystery to me

This will pass, it's like suicide
Don't give up, if you make it alive
It's nothing but a car chase, babe
Nothing but a mind gone crazed
Trouble in spades, yeah
At 75 miles per hour

Hang on to yourself, babe
Hang on to yourself, babe
Oh

It's all so temporary
Changes like the rivers running through the mountains
Your heart was a sanctuary
Now it's just a mystery to me

A house of mirrors
A house of mirrors
(A house of mirrors)

Made my way to the city
There was no one around
I remember you so beautiful
I remember you so down, down

It's all so temporary
Changes like the rivers running through the mountains
Your heart was a sanctuary
Now it's just a mystery to me

A house of mirrors
A house of mirrors
