

Beautiful Mess

Busted

You're getting high and old
All by yourself in your room
Where on earth do you go?
What the hell do you do?
I wanna know a lot more about you
Don't be afraid of the dark
Cause everybody can tell
If you wanna be mine
I wanna be yours as well
Before I lose my mind without you
I keep saying that everybody's wrong

I've been running after you for such a long, long time
You say you're so depressed, could you not care less?
But you've been giving up on me and I don't know why
Cause I'm so obsessed with your beautiful mess

Living alone in a dream
Must be a wonderful thing
I picture me by your side
But you're not letting me in
I wanna wrap my arms around you
Man I don't care what they say
I love the way that you are
I wanna take you away
Before you take it too far
And your demons come to drown you
Just saying that everybody's wrong

I've been running after you for such a long, long time
You say you're so depressed, could you not care less?
But you've been giving up on me and I don't know why
Cause I'm so obsessed with your beautiful mess

I've been running after you for such a long, long time
You say you're so depressed, could you not care less?
But you've been giving up on me and I don't know why
Cause I'm so obsessed with your beautiful mess

Ooh, yeah
I've been running after you for so so long
Oh yeah, ooh
So obsessed with your beautiful mess
