Race to Mars

The race to Mars The race to Mars Dead from the start, the world is falling apart But now it's okay (The race to Mars) The new Tony Stark is busy building the ark You know it's okay (The race to Mars) It's times that we're living It's times that we're living in The stars are the limit It's time to begin again Now everybody, come on Now everybody Ooh, why can't we just get along? When the fire starts We gotta hold on We could chase the stars As the sun's gone At the end of the day After it's all gone It's the race to Mars, race to Mars Into the dark, a journey we will embark Come on, it's okay (The race to Mars) You got a part to play, so you better start To make it okay (Electric cars) It's times that we're living It's times that we're living in The stars are the limit It's time to begin again Now everybody, come on Now everybody Ooh, why can't we just get along? When the fire starts We gotta hold on We could chase the stars As the sun's gone At the end of the day After it's all gone It's the race to Mars, the race to Mars One more step for human kind Is Burning Man the future? One more chance to turn the tide It's the race to Mars When the fire starts We gotta hold on We could chase the stars

Busted

As the sun's gone At the end of the day After it's all gone It's the race to Mars, the race to Mars

Everybody, come on Now everybody Ooh, why can't we just get along? Everybody, come on Now everybody Find a place where we belong A place that we belong, we belong Belong, belong Belong, belong Belong, belong Belong, belong The race to Mars The race to Mars