

Everything White

Butch Walker

(Everything white)
Like the privilege on my streets
(Everything white)
Like grandpa's costume sheets
(Everything white)
Like the lies I tell my friends
(Everything white)
Like the life that I pretend

(Everything white)
Like the blood cells that deplete
(Everything white)
These hospital walls will bleed
(Everything white)
The only Beatle album better than Let it Be
(Everything white)
Guys, that was a White album reference (So deep)

Everybody's blinded by the lightning
Nobody hears the falling rain
Everybody's hiding in the silence
We all are all to blame for...

(Everything white)
Like the churches squeaky clean
(Everything white)
Like the preacher's limousine
(Everything white)
Like the sober reality
(Everything white)
When you gotta' stop talking just to see

Everybody's blinded by the lightning
Nobody hears the falling rain
Everybody's hiding in the silence
We all are all to blame for...

(Everything white)
Like my face when I'm faced with a song that I didn't even write
(Everything white)
Like the pages of a book that I took sound familiar, right?
(Everything white)
Take a couple of these, everything's gonna' be alright
(Everything white)
Just breathe a little and realize, realize

Everybody's blinded by the lightning
Nobody hears the falling rain
Everybody's hiding in the silence
We all are all to blame for...

Uh it's so dark in here
