

Lean into Me

Butch Walker

Second to last dance of the night
A starry crawl
Why does everybody have to go?
Slow redemption from the cheap seats in the hall
The exit yawns fall out like dominoes

Bad things last a little longer
No tease or promise of a release

So come on lean into me
You always said you liked em tall
Stay sweet and low
In the chaos of it all
There's a heart for every reason
So whatever yours may be
Just patch it on your sleeve
Lean into me

Return to sender when the writing's on the wall
Crop circles all around the phone
Operator can you please connect my call
Regret you know is religion when it's grown

Feels like it might take forever
But a singer always finds his key

If you lean into me
You always said you liked em tall
Stay sweet and low
Through the chaos of it all
There's a heart for every reason
So whatever it may be
Just patch it on your sleeve
Lean into me

If you lean into me
You always said you liked em tall
Stay sweet and low
Through the chaos of it all
There's a heart for every reason
So whatever it may be
Just patch it on your sleeve
Lean into me
