

Pretty Crazy

Butch Walker

Well, she laughs like she's been crying
But the emotion's all the same
Claims she did coke with Jesus
In a bathroom on the train
But even the good lord knows you're a train wreck
So he ain't coming back around
He's got no time for saving souls in this purgatory town

But I'm here for you
A waiting fool
To show you that I got it down

You gotta' be pretty, crazy
One or the other
A little purple, a little hazy
Alright, alright, alright
I'm kinda' new at love
But I'll pick you up
Forget an unforgettable night
Pretty, crazy
I'm praying for a little bit of both tonight

(Lemme' tell you)
Any kinda' love is a good love to me
And this shit is off the chain
When she puts that hair up in a bun
Turns to sunshine from the rain
Now my world got dark, and I lost the heart
Before you I was living a lie
And while all our heroes are dying baby
You're making me feel alive

And I'm here for you
A waiting fool
To show you that I got it down

You gotta' be pretty, crazy
One or the other
A little Cinderella, come and save me
Alright, alright, alright
I'm kinda' new at love
But I'll pick you up
Forget an unforgettable night
Pretty, crazy
I'm praying for a little bit of both tonight

You gotta' be pretty, crazy
One or the other
A little dazed and confused with nothin' to lose
Alright, alright, alright

I gotta' lotta' love
Lemme' pick you up
I promise baby I won't bite
Pretty, crazy
I'm praying for a little bit of both tonight
