

One Day

Butcher Babies

All I see is the end
But it's better not to pretend
Cause I know I can't stop what I fear
Cause I know one day that you won't be here

I'm counting days
And I hope that I lose track
Before we both say...

Knowing your life fades away
Always
Stops me from living today
And yet I
Feel so consumed by the loss
Because
Losing you means losing myself
That's a bridge that I can't cross

I can never forget
Early days that we all regret
Chapters we can't dispel
Always end with you pulling us out of Hell

To take your place
Is it too much to ask
Is there no other way?

Knowing your life fades away
Always
Stops me from living today
And yet I
Feel so consumed by the loss
Because
Losing you means losing myself
That's a bridge that I can't-

Finding out who I am
All the best parts of me came from your heart
Will my son ever know who I am
If you're gone and I fall apart?

Knowing your life fades away
Always
Stops me from living today
And yet I
Feel so consumed by the loss
Because
Losing you means losing myself
That's a bridge that I can't cross

Wasting my breath when I pray
I know
Nothing can stop, just delay
So I will
Hold both your hands when you cross
And live
Honoring your name every day

As I can't escape your loss
As I can't escape your loss
That's a bridge that I can't cross
