

Break That Ball And Chain

Buzzcocks

You've gotta break that ball and chain
Ball and chain, yeah
You've gotta break that ball and chain
Ball and chain, yeah

There's a place where you come from
There's a place you don't belong
There's a life you cannot see
There's a bell of mystery

Big winds blowing in the sky
There's no wonder but you've gotta try

To break that ball and chain
Ball and chain, yeah (Break that ball and chain)
You've gotta break that ball and chain
Ball and chain, yeah

One of these days and it won't be long
All your feelings getting strong
'Til you don't know right from wrong

Big winds blowing in the sky
There's no wonder but you've gotta try

To break that ball and chain
Ball and chain, yeah (Break that ball and chain)
You've gotta break that ball and chain
Ball and chain, yeah (Break that ball and chain)

You've gotta break that ball and chain
Ball and chain, yeah (Break that ball and chain)
You've gotta break that ball and chain
Ball and chain, yeah (Break that ball and chain)

Big winds blowing in the sky
There's no wonder but you've gotta try

To break that ball and chain
Ball and chain, yeah (Break that ball and chain)
You've gotta break that ball and chain
Ball and chain, yeah (Break that ball and chain)

(Ball and chain)
You've gotta break that ball and chain
Ball and chain, yeah (Gotta break that ball and chain)
You've gotta break that ball and chain (Gotta break that ball and chain)

Ball and chain, yeah (Gotta break that ball and chain)
You've gotta break that ball and chain (Gotta break that ball and chain)
Ball and chain, yeah (Gotta break that ball and chain)
You've gotta break that ball and chain (Gotta break that ball and chain)
Ball and chain, yeah (Gotta break that ball and chain)
You've gotta break that ball and chain
