

Destination Zero

Buzzcocks

Lookin' out across the world, at the magic in the air
Spendin' time feelin' fine, and act like you don't care
Your mind is full of big ideas, life is short and sweet
But you better find out who you are, from your head down to you r feet

Well, destination, destination zero
That's the price you pay for tryin' to be a hero

Starin' out across your dreams to find there's nothin' there
Flyin' through the universe, lights spinnin' everywhere
All the things they told you are not what they seem Livin' in Space City, but they don't know what it means

Well, destination, destination zero
That's the price you pay for tryin' to be a hero
Destination, destination zero
That's the price you pay for tryin' to be a hero

Well, destination, destination zero
That's the price you pay for tryin' to be a hero
Destination, destination zero
That's the price you pay for tryin' to be a hero, zero

A hero, zero, a hero
Hero, zero, hero
Hero, zero, hero
Hero, zero, hero
