

Run Away From Home

Buzzcocks

I've had a fight, by the phone
I just wanted to be alone

I've had to run away from home
I've been kicked out, and I'm all alone
I've got nowhere else to go
Can you tell me who wants to know?

What a solemn state to be in
I suppose I'll never win
I've been sleepin' in the park
It's so cold, and it's so dark

I've had to run away from home
I've been kicked out, and I'm all alone
I've got nowhere else to go
Can you tell me who wants to know?

I suppose I'll have to go back
I do it every time

I've had to run away from home
I've been kicked out, I was all alone
I've got nowhere else to go
Can you tell me who wanted to know?
I've had to run away from home
I've been kicked out, I was all alone
I've got nowhere else to go
Can you tell me who wanted to know?
