

Seeing Daylight

Buzzcocks

You might say that it's the end
You can talk with all your friends
A big mistake for what it's worth
You might think in a straight line
See yourself in space and time
But they say you live and learn

Seeing daylight in your mind
You'll never know what you might find

You might stand upon your head
'Cause of things that had been said
Empty gestures every time
You might walk into a wall
Start to think that you are small
In a place of only crime

Seeing daylight in your mind
You'll never know what you might find
Seeing daylight in your mind
You'll never know what you might find

Seeing daylight
Seeing daylight
Seeing daylight

Seeing daylight in your mind
You'll never know what you might find
Seeing daylight in your mind
You'll never know what you might find

Seeing daylight
Seeing daylight
Seeing daylight
Seeing daylight
Seeing daylight
Seeing daylight

Seeing daylight
Seeing day
Seeing daylight
Seeing day
Seeing daylight
Seeing day
Seeing daylight
