

Third Dimension

Buzzcocks

There's a certain sound that when you call
Love, lost and found, in the third dimension
No one is, just space 'n' time
Those are questions that's in my mind

I'll be waiting, till the sun comes down
Anticipating, in the third dimension
I'll be waiting, till the sun comes down
Anticipating, in the third dimension

Everything changes for good or bad
When you're only happy, feeling sad
There's nothing to win and love is a ruse
Just some direction on the path you choose

I'll be waiting, till the sun comes down
Anticipating, in the third dimension
I'll be waiting, till the sun comes down
Anticipating, in the third dimension

I'll be waiting, till the sun comes down
Anticipating, in the third dimension
I'll be waiting, till the sun comes down
Anticipating, in the third dimension
I'll be waiting, till the sun comes down
Anticipating, in the third dimension
I'll be waiting, till the sun comes down
Anticipating, in the third dimension
I'll be waiting, till the sun comes down
Anticipating, in the third dimension

I'll be waiting
I'll be waiting
I'll be waiting
In the third dimension
I'll be waiting
I'll be waiting
