

Venus Eyes

Buzzcocks

I've got a feeling that something's changing
Something deep inside
I've got a feeling that's rearranging
A feeling I can't hide

Got a note from Julia
Corridors of power
Thought control reality
In a crystal golden shower

Then I turned around to see your face
And look right in your Venus eyes
(Venus eyes)

I've been looking through walls of darkness
Dreams fall in my mind
In a world that might seem heartless
Where love is hard to find

Got a note from Julia
Corridors of power
Thought control reality
In a crystal golden shower

Then I turned around to see your face
And look right in your Venus eyes
(Venus eyes)
Then I turned around to see your face
And look right in your Venus eyes
(Venus eyes)

Though the world is changing
Realities changing, too
And the things they're saying
Making you say, too

Though the world is changing
Realities changing, too
And the things they're saying
Making you say, too

I keep hearing sounds of thunder
A place where worlds collide
Lost inside a state of wonder
Shoots up to the sky

Got a note from Julia
Corridors of power
Thought control reality
In a crystal golden shower

Then I turned around to see your face
And look right in your Venus eyes
(Venus eyes)
Then I turned around to see your face
And look right in your Venus eyes
(Venus eyes)

Then I turned around to see your face
And look right in your Venus eyes
(Venus eyes)

Venus eyes
Your Venus eyes
Venus eyes
Your Venus eyes
