

Still Believe

By The Tree

One minute I was walkin' on water with You
The next thing I was falling
So far far from You
I'm sorry for falling asleep in the garden
I'm sorry for acting like I didn't know You

What a wonder
Such a wonder

That You still love me
That You still rain down Your mercy
That You still believe in me

I never understood it how
You saw through me
Into what I could be, You hardly knew me
But now I wanna follow with all my passion
Sometimes I trip and fall with my own actions

It's a wonder I know it's a wonder
