

Past..Present...Annihilation

Bywar

Inhuman minds, millions of years of extermination
We born, we die, reborn and die
The planet lies, pestilence was not extinguished
We burn, we freeze, forgotten in the wind
Nuclear bombs smashing dreams of many nations
No mercy, no reason on this true sin
Disaster of nature, hate storms and cruel tornados
Rain of blood and unconscious fear.

Can you survive from all this eternal hate
Are you guilty or just a victim?
Everyone says that never did anything wrong
It's a lie! You've killed in your past life
Still not exist the perfect man in a perfect world
So you deserve to born on earth
Now you must be part of this annihilation
And pay and die for millions years.

Chain reactions against cruelty of men
Tears running down the nations in flames
The thunder will bring it, noise too strong
Past... Present... Annihilation!!!

Chain reactions against cruelty of men
Tears running down the nations in flames
The thunder will bring it, noise too strong
Past... Present... Annihilation!!!

Chain reactions against cruelty of men
Tears running down the nations in flames
The thunder will bring it, noise too strong
Past... Present... Annihilation!!!
