

Never too Late

C.N.Blue

U said me why you live so boring it maybe so right, didn't deny all I wanna make a time to seek me alone just I wanna keeping you on my step you come up in front of me I wonder in my eyes
I know that how wonder brilliant things are in my life

It makes me changed it all because I have a dream that is a song
for U I can sing a song till to the end

If I can't meet u still, forever
I don't know what will be happen to me now
I know that it something most important now yes that is you even if slow compared with other one, it doesn't matter anymore
to me
it is a timely encounter of destiny it's never too late

I say u listen to my breathing it is a belief of dreaming yeah certainly I won't be I'm in the past any more. Former trivial every day was practice of the purpose which can meet you at all I wanna shout and unbearable to the anymore

It makes me changed it all because I have a dream that is a song
for U
I can sing a song till to the end

If I can't meet u still, forever
even if slow compared with other one, it doesn't matter anymore
to me
it is a timely encounter of destiny it's never too late

If I can't meet u still, forever
I don't know what will be happen to me now
I know that it something most important now yes that is you
even if slow compared with other one, it doesn't matter anymore
to me
it is a timely encounter of destiny it's never too late
