Please forgive what I said all my words I regret hope you never ever let go now I know I needed you so Tears are drowning my heart I need you to tell me tell me baby.....

Could you ever love me again
if I say that I'm sorry could you ever hold me
the way we used to hold eachother would you ever trust me same
if I say that I'm sorry

I softly whisper your name dont wanna burn out the flame I never ever doubted my mind when there's a mountain to climb

You got the words in your heart I need you to tell me tell me baby.....

Could you ever love me again
if I say that I'm sorry
could you ever hold me
would you ever trust me same
if I say that I'm sorry

I want you close closer than close could you ever love me again
