Caamp

Well I found out yesterday
That I'm in love
And I don't know what else to say
But thank you Lord
For that sundress on that Saturday
Walking barefoot down the beach

Smell of the rain up in the air
Smell the flowers in her hair
And I swear on my life
If you need a joke I'll be there
You need a smoke here take my spare
I always thought that you were fine

So what do ya say when we're 26
We'll get married just for kicks and
Move out to Alaska way up there
Get a job stacking bricks
Stay at home with the kids and
I'll bring the bacon back home to you girl
Making the best of this world

So what do ya say when we're 26
We'll get married just for kicks and
Move out to Alaska way up there
Get a job stacking bricks
Stay at home with the kids and
I'll bring the bacon back home to you girl

You never knew how to tell a lie
I'll be an honest man till I die
You know this young love
Has got me high, has got me high
Making the best of this life
