

Afternoon Moon

Cab Calloway

Afternoon moon

What a thrill to see you shining so soon
Did somebody tell you this was such a special day?
Is that why you shine that way?

Afternoon moon

Do you think the breeze will bring us a tune?
I need all the help I can get right from the start
When I ask her for her heart

For when I propose, every one knows
I tremble and shake
And if she says no, then even your glow
Won't stop my heart from breaking

Wish me success

Won't you hope and pray that she will say yes
I can't wish upon a lucky star, it's much too soon
So be my lucky afternoon moon

For when I propose, every one knows
I tremble and shake
And if she says no, then even your glow
Won't stop my heart from breaking

Wish me success

Won't you hope and pray that she will say yes
I can't wish upon a lucky star, it's much too soon
So be my lucky afternoon moon
