

Strange As It Seems

Cab Calloway

Though I know I'm wasting my time to love you
Strange as it seems
Deep down in my heart, I do
Strange as it seems, I keep on thinking of you
Clinging to dreams, dreams that I know will not come true

One night of bliss, one stolen kiss
Is thrilling me yet
Why should it be our loving it be
Now must forget we ever met

Though you can be nothing to me I want you
Strange as it seems
Deep in my heart, I do

Strange as it seems to me...

Strange as it seems
Deep in my heart, I love you, baby
