

End Times

CABAL

How did we all grow so cold?
Did we become jaded from the false dreams they sold?
They promised us the world
But instead we have to watch it burn

How did we all grow so cold?
Did we become jaded from the false dreams they sold?
They promised us the world
But instead we have to watch it burn

Screaming for reason
Pleading but no one will listen
Weeping in despair
But there's no mercy here

Screaming for reason
Pleading but no one will listen
Weeping in despair
Bleeding, but there's no mercy here

Kids are forced to scavenge through filth
Open your eyes and behold the world that we've built
On a foundation of blood spilled
We are the blind being led by the ill willed

Welcome to the end times you son of a bitch

Total damnation
An unbearable weight that will crush everyone
Total extinction
Compassion crushed by greed beyond any reason

Screaming for reason
Pleading but no one will listen
Weeping in despair
But there's no mercy here

Screaming for reason
Pleading but no one will listen
Weeping in despair
Bleeding, but there's no mercy here

Screaming for reason
Pleading but no one will listen
Weeping in despair
Bleeding, but there's no mercy here
There's no mercy here
Weeping in despair
But there's no mercy here
