

Insatiable

CABAL

Shroud me in noise, let me drown out the voice
The voice of the past now is all that will ever last
Let this moment be all I've got
I will never stop, insatiable till the day I drop

I will never stop
Insatiable till I drop
Insatiable

Right now there is nothing at all
No guilt, no shame, just blood pumping through my veins
A feeling I will never forget
I'll hold it close to my chest
Let it drag me down and be my death

Let it drag me down and be my death

Marked souls march on
Blacken out the sun, let us be no one
Marked souls march on
Blacken out the sun, all we are is undone

I want nothing more and nothing less than all of this I'll let it consume me till it's all there is Consume me till it's all there is Always pushing on never slowing down

Let the voice of the past drown, all I want is now
I'll gladly accept an early grave
I'm not holding on for later, this is all I crave

Engulf me in this in very moment
I'd give it all away if time could be forever frozen
But still I move on from this instant to the next one

No purpose, no higher power
Unbound by choice, destined for the void
Hiding away from light and time
Clinging on to nothingness is all that was ever mine

Pull through, push on
From this instant to the next one
Pull through, push on
From this instant to the next one

From this instant to the next one

Marked souls march on
Blacken out the sun, let us be no one
Marked souls march on
Blacken out the sun, all we are is undone

Marked souls march on
Blacken out the sun, let us be no one
Marked souls march on
Blacken out the sun, all we are is undone

Marked souls march on
Blacken out the sun, let us be no one
Marked souls march on
Blacken out the sun, all we are is undone

Marked souls march on
Marked souls march on
