

Insidious

CABAL

You don't see me but I live inside your rotten soul
I'll make your knees buckle and your blood run cold
Tremble before me
I'll make you see true misery in everything you once believed in
I am the end

You said you wouldn't let me in
But it's where I've always been
I am the end

I'm the bitter taste in the back of your throat
The ache in your bones, the end of your rope
I'm the absence of light, the harbinger of the eternal night
I am the edge of the knife, I am your demise

You don't see me but I live inside your rotten soul
I'll make your knees buckle and your blood run cold
Tremble before me
I'll make you see true misery in everything you once believed in
I am the end

Too blinded by the false light to see
I am you and you are me, bound together in misery
In this life you'll never be free
You will never be free

I'm the bitter taste in the back of your throat
The ache in your bones, the end of your rope
I'm the absence of light, the harbinger of the eternal night
I am the edge of the knife, I am your demise
