Nothingness

CABAL

I was cursed from birth

Nothingness is bliss
Every inch of my body longs for it
I know what I've sown
I know what I'll reap
Oh father of death bring me eternal sleep

Cursed to be bound to this world
Damned to consume and corrupt what once was pure
I lived as a disease but I will die as the cure

My purpose I found beyond the trees
I was blinded by the light but now I can see
The mark is a blessing, the void will set us free

Nothingness is bliss
Every inch of my body longs for it
I know what I've sown
I know what I'll reap
Oh father of death bring me eternal sleep

I will cast away the shackles of life
I will unleash what is older than time

This world is chaos but will be forced in line
I hear the calling, it's guiding me

When my hand grips the knife I know it's guiding me
The blade carves the flesh, by the void I am blessed

My sacrifice will free us from this world of sin
My sacrifice will free us from the curse of living

One last slash of the knife
The blood leaves my body as I leave this life
Beneath me blackened soil emerges
As the void takes over all I was

My purpose I found beyond the trees
I was blinded by the light but now I can see
The mark is a blessing, the void will set us free

Nothingness is bliss
Every inch of my body longs for it
I know what I've sown
I know what I'll reap
Oh father of death bring me eternal sleep
