

Where My Fortune Lies

Cacophony

Took a chance, broken dice
Paid my cards, ought to be twice
Get the land, overcare
Waiting till the day I win
Over left play the game
The out control is a shame

When the danger is in tonight
And the world is passing by
Till my fortune really lies on the line

And my quest for seems right
Taking all the risk inside
Till my fortune really lies on the line

Got to win, it's my turn
Yesterdays are bridges burnt
Spin the wheel, once again
Never quit, till I win

Still I'm searching every day,
And I know it all the way

Well, this is my fortune
