

One Way, or Another

Cactus

One way or another you go through life
You live alone you keep a wife
You beat the law you leave your hometown Finding out it's hard when you're all alone and brought down Sisters and Brothers on everything you do one way or another
The choice is up to you.
Fathers and Mothers you'll see the dawn Or sleep forever excepting wrong Disguising fear something strong Your Bleeding hearts just can't go on Today your fears your weakness
Tomorrow it's a pain
I can't go on explaining all the Troubles in your brains.
You can't begin to love until you understand The value of the trust you give or take from fellow-man
through life
Sisters and Brothers you come to love Fathers and Mothers we go through time
One way or another we're all the same alllll the same .
One way or another we're all the same
The glowing ring, inside your brain That makes you laugh when things are right That makes you cry in the middle of the night Sisters and Brothers your life goes on One way or another! right or wrong.
