

Reborn

Cadaver

Revealing the secrets
Of my past-life subconsciousness
Entering, unfolding
What wasn't meant to be

Obsessed by the negative
Beholders of lies
Pretending, defending
Believing their own disguise

Unborn fantasies
Of how life came to be
A guide by destructive
Destructive enemies

I'll win, I'll win
The others made that sin
Of underestimating my grin

My grin, my grin
What they didn't see
See me coming through
