

Divination

Cadaveria

In my head the fire of the great king of justice in my crown the force of the cold wind and thunder
The truth is my belief
My heart suffered from the pains of my ancestral ones who have become disembodied
I make offerings to let them find their way to light.
I drink water to calm me down,
I dive into the ocean to purify me
I dive into the ocean to energize me.
Ah ah ah ah ah ah
Quench me oh river and give me peace so that I can complete my mission.
Caress me oh wind and lift me up so that I can heal my injuries.
Powerful gypsy inebriate me with the love of him who is predestined for me
My dear gypsy you said he will arrive
He is already on my way.
