

Loneliness

Cadaveria

Here is me again
Here's who I am
I live day by day with long-term projects

Here is where I arrived
Every day a new tile

I continue to feel a gap
Something that I call loneliness
I must find a solitude moment to write
And then music will be born by itself

This is my path, this is my knowledge
Eating the fruits of a hard long work
You need a great wish to be

Here is where I arrived
Every day a new tile

I continue to feel a gap
Something that I call loneliness
Lives and souls that seems to touch each other
But that'll never reach the infinity
