

Ask Me

Cadet

Cadet, Cadet

Swag's on a man
VVS diamonds in my den
Everybody's so judgement'
But that foreign ting it might be a rental
And that's why it's a mad ting
And why it's a couple hundred back tings
Look I ain't even on a flash ting
Nigga first thing is first, buy a hand ting
But take care of your peoples
Look, some of these niggas be evil
And I ain't even gonna lie to you
'Cause my ones are evil
Look everything fabulous
Until you walk past and we holler back
But don't be confused by the wha gwans
Better run when you hear
(What watch is that)

Are you stunting with your money, are you stunting with your money
Are you stunting with your money, you ain't brave
Keep flexing with your money, keep flexing with your money
Till my niggas run up and take
Are you flexing with your money, dog
Are you flexing with your paper
Are you stunting with your money, dog
Are you stunting with your paper

Shit's all good over here
I don't know about them, rudeboy, if you ask me
But you don't care that much if you get no response, rudeboy, when you ask me
And girl I won't lie, straight up
I'ma keep it one hundred if you ask me
But just don't ask me twice
If you get no response when you ask me

Look, swag's all reckless
VVS diamonds in my necklace
And I ain't even in the game, boy
All my dogs move bricks like it's Tetris
Use your common sense, boy
This ting here have you all senseless
Have you hanging down the bag like a hashbrown
Mandem come and get your breakfast
Look man are still saucing
I can see you up my page gets reporting
From the ends where the boom more gauges
Before they even thought about a mortgage
Ah, I take payments
If they're in amazement
But the ting that I got so amazing
IPhone X man that unlocks faces

Are you stunting with your money, are you stunting with your money
Are you stunting with your money, you ain't brave

Keep flexing with your money, keep flexing with your money
Till my niggas run up and take
Are you flexing with your money, dog
Are you flexing with your paper
Are you stunting with your money, dog
Are you stunting with your paper

Shit's all good over here
I don't know about them, rudeboy, if you ask me
But you don't care that much if you get no response, rudeboy, when you ask me
And girl I won't lie, straight up
I'ma keep it one hundred if you ask me
But just don't ask me twice
If you get no response when you ask me

Know about them if you ask me
Get no response when you ask me
Keep it one hundred if you ask me
Get no response when you ask me
