

This Strict Freestyle

Cadet

I saw an article about four black girls that couldn't get into the club
Saw a picture and them girl were buff
So tell that promoter to suck his mum
I bet that his family's black
Fuck everybody else that be living like that These western clubs need to change their ways
But a'ight, cool
Lemme get this straight

If you're skin shade turned down, you get turned down
If you're light skin and turn up, you can turn up
Wait
And if you're overweight, the night life is all over
Wait
I don't get that
Now I know you can't walk in hoodies, hats, trainers and all of this shit
But you're saying that I can't be black and I gotta be buff
When did it get this strict
Real shit when did it get District
I'm just tryna understand
How is my colour wrong?
You're letting bout four people with a mad funny tan like
I ain't here to start beef and I ain't ruff raff, just coming off the street s
Me, I'm tryna have fun, but what kind of criteria do I have to meet?
So because I don't lift weights in the gym, even if I wait, I can't get in Because my girl ain't got the long hair, does that mean that she don't belong here?

I'm sorry my eyes aren't green, they're brown
Kinda boring I know, but I swear I'm a nice person
My appearance has no effect on my soul
So bouncers and promoters, just please, come away from the doors
Cause the power trip that your on ain't even a trip
You're on a power tour
Nah I ain't saying that you're racist, but your judgement needs a round of applause
Cause you don't find her attractive, she can't get in a club that's not even yours
Now I get that You're a long ting, man I get that Yeah I get that
You know buff on the outside must mean that you're buff on the inside
See I get that

I'm sorry Mr Bouncer for coming to you with all this waffle
But next time let me know it's not a club and it's an audition for a next top model
So you put their nice eyes in the club and everybody with nice vibes in the club
Well maybe I ain't right for the club cause something bout that ain't right in the club
I'm gonna leave this alone now
But please dwell on this for a second
I hope God ain't have the same attitude when it comes to letting you into Heaven
You know

Ayo big man, big man, big man I beg you let me in there please
No? I didn't want to go in anyway
I got AUX in my car init
