Doubt You

Cadmium

I'm gonna take a stab in the dark tonight
I'm vulnerable to the danger
But I'm gonna break if I don't bend

You're gonna leave and I'm gonna be alright
I got a hundred bottles
I'll line them up on the fence

And I'll shoot the months I couldn't feel okay
Yeah I'll shoot the thoughts that kept my light at bay

Cos life had me phased
Done with the war inside my brain
I'll fill the room and all your space
I'm everything without you
Thank God you made me doubt you

Thank God you made me doubt you

Done with sayin' sorry for my emotions
No you didn't know how to show it
You even said there was nothin' to feel

I dug a hole so deep and I let you lie
Comfort you took for granted
And I'm done with waiting for you to be real

And I'll shoot the months I couldn't feel okay
Yeah I'll shoot the thoughts that kept my light at bay

I lay awake beside you for hours
You brought me tears and I brought you flowers
Oooh and I deserve more I know that I know that Always been harmless, if you'd've harmed me less maybe I would still be

I lay awake beside you for hours
You brought me tears and I brought you flowers
Oooh and I deserve more I know that I know that
Thank God you made me doubt you

Cos I'm better off without you
