

Like stars that shining
Darkness glow so bright
You once told me
I'd have to dim my light
My mystic being
Held by gravity
I almost let you hold me
Back from everything

Oh... me in my shadow, learn to let go
Oh... burning my fears now, stealing the power
(I won't keep) falling, falling
I won't keep falling, falling
Thought I was gone, hanging on the edge
Now I come back like a Goddess
Like a Goddess...

You shot my conscience
Flew out to the sky
I used to give in
But now I'd ask you why
Say I'm different
Let your words run out
But I'm not desperate
For your approval now

Oh... me in my shadow, learn to let go
Oh... burning my fears now, stealing the power
(I won't keep) falling, falling
I won't keep falling, falling
Thought I was gone, hanging on the edge
Now I come back like a Goddess
Like a Goddess...
