

Lost Labyrinth

Cadmium

Never thought that you would got me running round in circles and I'm all in Even though I could've known there's no way back
Never thought that I would have my heart and my mind in a tug of war
And there is no way out again

Our love's like a movie scene
Forgot how it feels to breathe love
But you ensnare me with each ebb and flow
Your white lies, I never believed
Your cold heart was never really in
Stuck in your love's labyrinth

Stuck in your love's labyrinth
Stuck in your love's labyrinth

Stuck in your love's labyrinth
Stuck in your love's labyrinth

All around me fire and I know that it will burn when I don't run now
But I see the walls are closing in
All along at night I knew you'd hypnotize me
An illusion fueled by love's burning highs

Our love's like a movie scene
Forgot how it feels to breathe love
But you ensnare me with each ebb and flow
Your white lies, I never believed
Your cold heart was never really in
Stuck in your love's labyrinth

Stuck in your love's labyrinth
Stuck in your love's labyrinth

Stuck in your love's labyrinth
