

Lost Souls

Cadmium

Sometimes I'm thinking about my purpose
And I don't know what to feel
Anymore (anymore)
I am surrounded in a world full of
Lost souls

Breaking through the void
Breaking through the fire
I am trynna get away
From all the fools and the liars

The world is drowning
No eyes are shining
All the pain, won't go away
Will always stay

(Won't go away, will always stay)

Sometimes I wonder if it's worth it
Feel like I don't know myself
Anymore, anymore
If I scream
Will you try to find me

Hostage in my mind
Sometimes I hear her cry
In the mornings
Am I losing track of time

Fading out of focus
Tell me I am not hopeless
'Cause if all the pain
Won't go away
Will always stay

(Won't go away, will always stay)
