

Slow Down

Cadmium

You are left behind
And I've lost everything
Forever living in the dark
I feel so alive
Still remembering
What I want, but it ends with you

Candlelight has gone out
Some will win and some will lose
Nothing much else to say
Thought I was searching for something
Door has closed, not a sound
Take a look as I am now
Still, I smile but don't speak
Will you please slow down

Slow down
Slow down
Slow down
Slow down
Slow down
Slow down

Unreal intertwined
And you're not listening
It is your choice to make
A little mockery, it won't do
Further down the line
Still surrendering
Trying harder to forgive you

Candlelight has gone out
Some will win and some will lose
Nothing much else to say
Thought I was searching for something
Door has closed, not a sound
Take a look as I am now
Still, I smile but don't speak
Will you please slow down

Slow down
Slow down
Slow down
Slow down
Slow down
Slow down

Candlelight has gone out
Some will win and some will lose
Nothing much else to say
Thought I was searching for something
Door has closed, not a sound
Take a look as I am now
Still, I smile but don't speak
Will you please slow down

Slow down

Slow down
Slow down
