

The Call

Cadmium

I was a slave for too long
Did my time but it's all wrong
Thought it was history
But scars won't fade and wounds still bleed

I was afraid now I'm frightening
Turned my pain into lightning
Look at what you have done
Turned me to the monster I've become

Kingdoms rise and fall
Some will run but few will risk it all
Will you answer the call?
Will you answer the call?
Will you answer the call?

I won't answer to no one
Paid my dues and I'm done
You should be scared to death
I'm a force to be reckoned with

I was afraid now I'm frightening
Turned my pain into lightning
Look at what you have done
Turned me to the monster I've become

Kingdoms rise and fall
Some will run but few will risk it all
Will you answer the call?
Will you answer the call?
