Tragedy

Cadmium

Been dreaming in my head, scheming
Getting lost in my imagination, mmm
It seems that my heart is needing
Just a little shot of inspiration

Wanna stay in the jungle of my mind
Swinging on the vines, I'm up so high
You won't seem me coming down, no
Life can try but I won't go
Don't care about the world I left behind
If you don't go, you'll never find
I ain't never looking back, no
No

Don't wanna be a casualty of my reality
I'd rather live on the edge of insanity
You know that I don't mind fighting for fantasies
No, I won't be just another tragedy

Just another tragedy
No, I won't be just another tragedy

I'm keeping what I believe in
I ain't trying to switch up your perception
No reason to give up this freedom
Don't mind staying locked up where my head is (no)

Don't wanna be a casualty of my reality
I'd rather live on the edge of insanity
You know that I don't mind fighting for fantasies
No, I won't be just another tragedy

Just another tragedy
You won't see me coming to life
Just another tragedy

Don't wanna be
A casualty
I'd rather live
On the edge of insanity
You know that I don't mind fighting for fantasies
No, I won't be just another tragedy
I ain't trying to switch up your perception
Just another tragedy
No, I won't be
Just another tragedy
