

When I Fall

Cadmium

Don't tell me where you've been
Cause I can feel it on your skin now
This love is wearing thin
It slipped right through our fingertips now
Strangers in the sheets
I feel in my sleep
I'm craving your body next to me
Forgotten how to breathe

I'm crazy cuz
You left me broken
And you tried to say its my fault, no
I picked up the pieces
But I couldn't breathe when you called, no
And everything's fading
Now we're barely speaking at all
The promise is breaking
You said you'd be there when I fall, fall

I'm crazy cuz
You left me broken
And you tried to say its my fault, no
I picked up the pieces
But I couldn't breathe when you called, no

Don't tell me how you feel
Cuz I can see it in your eyes now
You wanted something real
Our love is fading with the tides now
Strangers in the sheets
I feel in my sleep
I'm craving your body next to me
Forgotten how to breathe

I'm crazy cuz
You left me broken
And you tried to say its my fault, no
I picked up the pieces
But I couldn't breathe when you called, no
And everything's fading
Now we're barely speaking at all
The promise is breaking
You said you'd be there when I fall, fall

I'm crazy cuz
You left me broken
And you tried to say its my fault, no
I picked up the pieces
But I couldn't breathe when you called, no
