

Hate Yourself

Cady Groves

I made a pact with the world
And so far we're sticking to it
It's a world where you don't exist
And all the promises you bent

I made a track through the world
And so far I haven't tumbled
In a world where you're not in it
I find myself taking bigger breathes

I bet you just hate yourself now
Oh I bet you just hate yourself now
I bet you just hate yourself now
If I was you I'd hate myself too

I lit a match on my regrets
And my heart is taking chances
There's time to make up for it
There's noticeable differences
I'm on top of the world

I bet you just hate yourself now
Oh I bet you just hate yourself now
I bet you just hate yourself now
If I were you I would hate myself too

I was so small
You were so close
I was so young
You were all I wanted
Yeah you were all I wanted

I was so small
You were so close
I was so young
You were all I wanted
Yeah you were all I wanted

I bet you just hate yourself now
Oh I bet you just hate yourself now
I bet you just hate yourself now
If I were you I'd hate myself too
