

Murder

Cady Groves

You got your keys,
But where ya going?
The third degree
Just isn't working.
Cuz you walked out
Without asking me to go,
And if I followed you home,
Would you be alone?

I checked your phone,
Cuz it was beeping.
Are you alone?
I know you're creeping.
Cuz you walked out
Without asking me to go,
And if I followed you home,
I hope you're alone.

I'm three steps from the edge,
Woaah
Don't push me over it.
Don't you know,
Don't you know.

Every girl is capable of murder,
If you hurt her.
Watch out, you don't push me any further,
Any further.
You're not the only one
Walking 'round with a loaded gun.
This little girl is capable of murder,
Cuz you hurt her.

My hands are clean,
Not yet a killer.
Ain't I your queen?
And did you tell her?
That you broke down all my
Shoulda-known-better's
And I followed you home,
Throwing sticks and stones.

I'm two steps from the edge,
Woaah
Don't push me over it.
Don't you know,
Don't you know.

Every girl is capable of murder,
If you hurt her.
Watch out, you don't push me any further,
Any further.
You're not the only one
Walking 'round with a loaded gun.
This little girl is capable of murder,
Cuz you hurt her.

Don't you know you should never treat a girl like that?
Got a good alibi and my bag's all packed.
Don't you know you should never treat a girl like that?
Cuz the next one's gonna have the hammer pulled back.

Every girl is capable of murder.
So watch out, you don't push me any further,
But you fking hurt her.

Every girl is capable of murder,
If you hurt her.
Watch out you don't push me any further,
Any further.
You're the only one
Walking 'round with a loaded gun.
This little girl is capable of murder,
Cuz you hurt her.
